- I. POLICY: The Department must permit an inmate the opportunity to notify the persons of his or her choice, by express mail, of an impending transfer within the 24-hour period preceding the inmate's move from the transferring facility. The sending of express mail notification is limited to the continental United States (48 states) and Puerto Rico. The exception would be a situation in which an inmate indicates that someone from outside the continental United States plans to visit him or her in the next couple of days.
- II. DESCRIPTION: If an inmate decides to notify the person(s) of his or her choice of an impending transfer, the facilities will use the United States Postal Service's Express Mail Service to forward the inmate's transfer message(s) (see Section III-B below). It is the practice of the U. S. Postal Service to deliver express mail as first-class mail within 24 hours of its receipt.
- III. GENERAL PROCEDURE
- A. It is the responsibility of the facility to ensure that inmates are informed of this service. Such notification will be pointed out to the inmate at the time of completion of Form #2064, "Personal Property Transferred." If the inmate requests this service, he or she shall initial the appropriate box and the Officer conducting the pack-up shall provide the inmate with Form #3623, "Inmate Express Mail Request," and Form #2706, "Disbursement or Refund Request." The Officer conducting the pack-up shall then complete and approve Form #2706 and promptly deliver Form #2706, Form #3623, and a copy of Form #2064 to the Inmate Records Coordinator (IRC). The IRC will forward the completed Form #2706 to the Business Office. Once processed, the IRC shall ensure that the express mail is delivered to the U. S. Postal Service. Form #3623 will be filed by the IRC in the inmate's legal file.
- If the inmate has been given the opportunity to request express mail notification and declines, he or she should initial the appropriate box on Form #2064.
- More than one express mail notification may be sent only if the inmate has sufficient funds in his or her account to cover the total cost(s). If sufficient funds aren't available, only one express mail notification may be sent; the cost of which will be charged to the inmate's account at his or her next facility.
- B. Express mail notifications may be used only to notify individuals of an inmate's pending transfer.
- The message to be sent is as follows:
- Dear _____:*

Please be advised that within the next 24 hours I will be transferred to another correctional facility. Please do not come to visit me at this facility, nor forward mail to this address until I have contacted you from my new facility.

Facility

- C. Except as outlined in Section III-D below, the express mail notification must be sent within the 24-hour period preceding the inmate's move from the sending facility. The messages should be sent as soon as possible by sending facility staff.
- D. In a situation where sufficient advance notice to contact the inmate and process an express mail notification is not given, the sending facility will advise the receiving facility by so noting on Form #2064, which is sent with the inmate. The receiving facility should make this one of the first orders of business when the inmate is received. If the inmate requests or declines, he or she shall initial the appropriate box on Form #2064. If the inmate requests this service, the following express mail message shall be used:

Dear _____:

Please be advised I am now located at _____ Correctional Facility (address)_____. Future correspondence, visits, or inquiries should be made to this address.

Facility

- E. Participation in the program is not optional for the facility, although it is optional for the inmate.

IV. FISCAL PROCEDURES

- A. Inmates will be charged the prevailing rate for each express mail notification.
- B. When Form #2706 for express mail is received in the Business Office, it will take priority over other transactions.
- C. If the inmate has sufficient funds, the Business Office will post as transaction code/type "527," sign the Business Office approval, and return the yellow copy to the IRC to clear sending of the express mail notification(s).
- D. If the inmate has insufficient funds:

1. Sending Facility
  - a. The Business Office will place a large RED "X" through the transaction code boxes and return all copies of Form #2706 to the IRC.
  - b. The IRC will send only one express mail notification (if requested by the inmate) and indicate the prevailing rate, and forward Form #2706 to the inmate's destination facility.
2. Receiving Facility
  - a. The IRC will send Form #2706 to the Business Office.
  - b. The Business Office will encumber the amount indicated on Form #2706 using the encumbrance code "36" Postage Code. Under the comments section of the encumbrance will be noted "express mail." When the encumbrance is fully collected, the collecting facility will use the funds to replenish their facility postage either by processing a refund of appropriation to the facility postage account or by drawing a check to the Postmaster.
