I. DESCRIPTION: Hudson Correctional Facility is a medium security correctional facility located in the City of Hudson in Columbia County. The facility is used as a general confinement facility for male incarcerated individuals 18 years and older. The facility includes a Residential Rehabilitation Unit (RRU) utilized as a disciplinary housing unit as well as reintegration into general population.

On the grounds of the Hudson Correctional Facility is a separate Hudson Work Release Facility. These facilities allow for complete separation from the two distinct populations.

II. FUNCTIONS: Hudson Correctional Facility offers a full range of programs including: academic education, vocational training, substance abuse education and treatment, transitional services, sex offender counseling, and group and individual counseling services. Focus is on family reunification and transition/discharge planning to develop a foundation for positive change.

Hudson Correctional Facility is classified as Mental Health Service Level 1, as defined in Correction Law, Section 2 (27).

The Hudson Work Release Facility houses male incarcerated individuals who meet the placement for the Work Release Program and incarcerated individuals meeting placement criteria for the Industrial Training Program at the Division of Industries in Central Office.
