- I. PURPOSE: The purpose of this directive is to provide a uniform procedure for voluntary transfer of incarcerated foreign nationals to home countries under treaty arrangements with the U.S. Government and in accordance with New York State Correction Law.
- II. BACKGROUND: Correction Law §5(4) authorizes the Commissioner to convert the sentence of a person serving an indeterminate sentence, except for a person serving a sentence with a maximum term of life imprisonment, to a determinate sentence equal to two-thirds of the maximum or aggregate maximum term imposed where such conversion is necessary to make the person eligible for transfer to Federal custody for transfer to foreign countries under treaties that provide for voluntary transfers.

 Correction Law §71 confers on the Commissioner, or designee, the sole and absolute authority to approve or disapprove an incarcerated individual's application for international transfer. Nothing herein shall be construed to confer upon any incarcerated individual a right to be transferred to the custody of a foreign nation.
- III. PROCEDURE
  - A. Notice
    1. Reception: Newly received incarcerated individuals who are identified as foreign nationals of treaty nations shall, as part of the reception process, be advised of the existence of prisoner transfer treaties and the possibility of the initiation of a transfer request.
    2. Law Libraries: To inform all prisoners who are citizens of another country, the law library of each general confinement facility housing incarcerated individuals subject to this directive shall contain:
      - a. A copy of this directive and NYS Correction Law
      - b. A listing of nations that have prisoner transfer treaties with the United States (see Attachment A)
      - c. The most recent Amnesty International Report describing prison conditions in each treaty nation
      - d. Other information on prison conditions in treaty nations published by the United Nations, the U.S. Department of State, or human rights organizations, if available

- e. To the extent practicable, information on each treaty nation's provisions for the reduction of terms of sentence, or a listing of officials in the U.S. Department of Justice or the embassy of the foreign country to whom an incarcerated individual may write for information.
- B. Application

    - i. Any other forms or information that may be required by the foreign country or treaty.
- C. Conversion of Indeterminate Sentence to Determinate Sentence: Where it is necessary to convert an indeterminate sentence to a determinate sentence in order to make an applicant eligible for international transfer, the sentence shall be calculated as equal to two-thirds of the maximum or aggregate maximum term imposed. Indeterminate sentences with a maximum term of life imprisonment may not be converted to a determinate sentence.
- D. Commissioner's Decision: Within 30 days of receipt, the Commissioner's designee shall acknowledge receipt of the application. If the application is disapproved, the incarcerated individual and referring Superintendent shall be so advised by letter from the Commissioner or Commissioner's designee.
- E. Approvals: Upon referral of an application which has been approved by the Commissioner:
1. If the application is approved, the Commissioner's designee shall write to the Office of Enforcement Operations, International Prisoner Transfer Unit, and U.S. Department of Justice advising that New York State is willing to transfer a prisoner. The documentation listed in subsection III-B-3-i shall be enclosed with this communication, and the incarcerated individual shall be provided with a copy of the cover letter.

2. The U.S. Department of Justice will approve or disapprove the request and will follow with documentation and instructions.
3. The U.S. Department of Justice will also notify the appropriate embassy of its decision, and in cases where it has approved the request, will ask if the other country is willing to accept the prisoner.
4. If accepted, the U.S. Department of Justice will arrange for a verification proceeding before a U.S. Magistrate Judge, who will have authority to order the prisoner accepted into Federal custody.

NOTE: This entire process, from the incarcerated individual's application through approval or denial, typically takes up to one year, and may take longer. Upon receipt of notification of the decision, the incarcerated individual will be informed by letter from the Commissioner or Commissioner's designee.

- F. Costs: The facility is responsible for transporting the incarcerated individual to a U.S. Magistrate Judge for a Consent Verification Hearing at the time of the transfer.
