Old Business

- No old business to discuss.

New Business

- At the request of OMH, the Board has developed an Article 10 extended release trial. Any indeterminate sex offender that is subject to Article 10 review will be given an open date of 120 days or earlier. The effectiveness of this trial will be evaluated at the six month and one year mark. The commissioner's worksheet has been updated to reflect the change. Also, incarcerated individuals affected by this procedural change will be provided with a memorandum explaining the extended release date.

Correspondence, Announcements and Invitations

- The Board has been invited to the New York Corrections Youth Services Association Region 4 conference. It will be held May 26th at the Poughkeepsie Grand Hotel. Registration ends May 10th.
- Chairman Towns shared two letters from formerly incarcerated individuals expressing their gratitude to the Board Commissioners.
