I. DESCRIPTION: Mohawk is classified as a medium security correctional facility and is located in the City of Rome in Oneida County. The facility is used for the general confinement of males 18 years of age or older.

Mohawk has a Special Housing Unit (SHU) and also has the maximum security Walsh Regional Medical Unit (RMU).

II. FUNCTIONS:

A. Mohawk offers the following:

1. Vocational training
2. Academic education
3. Counseling
4. Volunteer services
5. Transitional services including aggression programs
6. Substance abuse treatment services program

B. Mohawk is classified as Mental Health Services Level 2, as defined in Correction Law Article 1, Section 2 (28).

C. Mohawk also has the Department's Food Production Center on its grounds. The Food Production Center is a USDA/Kosher certified food processing center that provides food items to all of the Department's facilities.

D. Walsh RMU provides long term care for incarcerated individuals who require more resources than are available in an infirmary, but who do not require acute care hospitalization. Walsh RMU also provides on-site physician specialty consultation services for the Oneida-Watertown and Elmira Hubs. Walsh RMU offers programming in the following areas:

1. Substance abuse treatment services
2. General business
3. Academic education
4. Transitional services including aggression programs
5. Sex Offender Counseling and Treatment Program (SOCTP)

E. Walsh RMU is classified as Mental Health Services Level 1, as defined in Correction Law Article 1, Section 2 (27). The RMU also functions as a Residential Treatment Facility.

III. CRITERIA: Incarcerated individuals must be designated medium security or less to be eligible for placement in general confinement.

Incarcerated individuals of any security classification are eligible for placement at Walsh RMU.

IV. PHYSICAL ENVIRONMENT: Housing units at Mohawk consist of dormitories, cubicles and rooms in general confinement. The SHU consists of single cells.

Housing at Walsh RMU consists of four-bed wards, semi-private, private, and secure rooms.
