REFERENCES (Include but are not limited to) Directives #4067, #4752, #4911, #4913, #4930	APPROVING AUTHORITY

- I. PURPOSE: This directive governs the purchase, control, and use of supplies for incarcerated individual arts and handicrafts. The purpose of the Art & Handicrafts Program is to encourage incarcerated individuals to engage in creative activities for personal growth and to provide a variety of opportunities for incarcerated individuals to explore interests in a variety of activities.
- II. POLICY
- A. Each facility shall develop an Incarcerated Individual Art and Handicrafts Program Policy and Procedure to be included in the Facility Operations Manual.
 - B. The possession of art and handicraft materials by incarcerated individuals requires a local permit in compliance with Directive #4911, “Packages and Articles Sent to Facilities.”
 - C. All supplies and tools for arts and handicrafts shall be evaluated as potentially hazardous materials, Class A or Class B tools (refer to Directive #4930, “Tool Control,” and Directive #4067, “Hazardous Materials Program”). Materials which are stored in locations designated by the Superintendent must be secured, controlled, inventoried, and only dispensed for use under the supervision and control of security staff.
 - D. Incarcerated individual art and handicrafts may be displayed within correctional facilities but not at any outside locations. Incarcerated individual art and handicrafts may not be sold by incarcerated individuals to anyone outside or within correctional facilities.
 - E. Incarcerated individual artworks and handicrafts may be given as gifts to family members only, in accordance with the procedures established for processing items through the visiting room and package room.
 - F. With approval of the Superintendent, incarcerated individual artwork and handicrafts may be donated to a not-for-profit organization.
- III. PURCHASE OR DONATION OF ART AND HANDICRAFT MATERIALS
- A. The Superintendent or designee shall develop a procedure for allowing incarcerated individuals to purchase art and handicraft materials and shall provide them with receipts for proof of purchase.
 - 1. The purchase of all art and handicraft materials shall be conducted through the commissary, package room, or other acceptable established procedure.
 - 2. Incarcerated individuals who wish to purchase art and handicraft materials must do so from their own accounts.

3. Approved materials that are not available through the commissary may be purchased through an established art and handicraft vendor and delivered to the package room for incarcerated individual pickup.
 4. No art or handicraft materials will be allowed from home packages. All items purchased by incarcerated individuals must come from the commissary or established vendors.
- B. Community donations of art and handicraft materials/supplies for approved volunteer and/or facility programs shall be processed in compliance with Directive #4752, "Receipt of Donated Material."
