10. Volunteer Services
11. Family Services
12. General Counseling Services

B. Hale Creek is an Office of Mental Health (OMH) Level 6 – No assigned OMH staff.

III. CRITERIA: To be eligible for CASAT participation, an incarcerated individual must be presumptively approved for work release participation and be free of any physical or psychological conditions, which would preclude work release participation. Incarcerated individuals may be placed in CASAT by Court Order, provided they are medium security eligible, mentally and physically qualified, and willing to participate in CASAT, with no expectations of subsequent work release participation if they did not receive presumptive approval for work release; however, they may continue to apply for work release or any other temporary release program. Successful completion of minimally six-months of CASAT can lead to work release or to a community-based residential program.

IV. PHYSICAL ENVIRONMENT: Housing units at Hale Creek Correctional Facility consist of dormitories.
